

Graduate Ecologist

QUALIFICATIONS:

Bachelor of Science with Honours 1 in the field of Anatomy
University of Queensland

Bachelor of Science with majors in Wildlife Biology and Ecology
University of Queensland

CAREER SUMMARY:

Oct 2007- Graduate Ecologist
Chenoweth Environmental Planning & Landscape Architecture

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE/STUDENT PROJECTS:

Honours Research Project 2006-2007 at the University of Queensland

- Condition indices of the wallabies on South Stradbroke Island

Advanced Study Program in Science at the University of Queensland 2003-2005

- Project 2004 – Validation of Bioelectric Impedance for Estimating Body Condition using the Brisbane River Turtle, Emydura signata as a model.
- Project 2005 – Thermal microclimate studies on the Koala, Phascolarctos cinereus, during daylight hours.

OTHER SKILLS AND TRAINING:

- Senior First Aid and Resuscitation
- Generic Mine Site Induction
- Construction Site Blue Card

Amy Prowd

BSc (Hons)

---

Amy has developing skills in:

- Ecological surveys
- Environmental reporting

and a keen interest in

- Conservation
- Australian native fauna

AWARDS

Deans Commendation for high achievement 2003, 2005

PERSONAL INFORMATION :

Born: 04/02/1985 Queensland
Nationality: Australian

